

2023 FOODS CONFERENCE JUDGING

Monday, July 17 – Fairbuilding

Report cancellations or changes to foods superintendent or Extension Office. Check about 15-30 minutes before your assigned time to see if they are on schedule. Please do not stand in long lines waiting for the judges. Bring your food to your appointment with a judge. Your entry cards will be ready for you at fair judging for you to pick up.

Please follow proper food safety habits by having a clean appearance when you bring your entries to the judge. If working with livestock, wash up before your conference judging time.

It is strongly recommended that everyone bring the recipes for their entries. Please bring a copy of your recipe, rather than a cookbook.
